

Polycom Trio™

Smart conferencing for all your meeting rooms

In the modern workplace, collaboration is key. Polycom Trio offers not only the most exceptional audio quality, but it also provides an integrated, cost-effective solution for empowering people to work the way they want to work using audio, content or video—or all three.

TODAY'S CHALLENGES

Today's conference rooms often have a "Frankenstein" approach to collaboration—disparate solutions that may or may not work well together, or they may not have any technology at all.
